

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

Casa Rita Lara*

HABS No. PR-73

Northeast corner of Calle Virtud and Calle Estrella
Ponce
Puerto Rico

Jack E Boucher, Photographer August 1977

PR-73-1 GENERAL VIEW FROM SOUTH

PR-73-2 SOUTHEAST SIDE

PR-73-3 NORTHWEST SIDE

* This small building represents the Spanish "colonial" style which was once very common in most towns of Puerto Rico. It is constructed of brick and stucco with a wood shingle roof. Dating from ca. 1875, it is one of the few examples of this style remaining in Ponce. Its condition is poor. (1972)